

CLIMBING HIGHER

Pastor Steven L. Shelley · January 26, 2003

While we were worshiping the Lord, I saw in the Spirit a door. And when the door opened, I saw there was no room to step inside the door, no landing inside the door. But as soon as the door opened and you were going to step through, there was a stairway that was leading up. And then at the top of the stairway, I saw a door, and there ended up being three doors.

And every time a door was opened, there was a stairway immediately. And the Lord was speaking into my spirit saying, “I’m opening a door for you in this place tonight. And when I open the door, it’s time to climb.” There’ll be no time to tarry on the level of the door. But it’s going to be an ascension. And God’s going to cause you to climb spiritually.

When you think you’ve climbed and God begins to open another door, then it’s still another climbing. So, I don’t know how to give an interpretation other than that. But I receive it in my own life that the Lord wants us, like He said to John on the Island of Patmos, “Come up a little higher.” Maybe the Lord’s just saying He wants us to come a little higher. Let’s do that tonight in the Spirit. Hallelujah.
