

ERASING ACCUSATIONS

Pastor Steven L. Shelley · March 26, 2006

I saw the Lord Jesus with a white cloth in His hand. And He was waving the cloth back and forth, a white, like a white towel, almost, in His hand. He was waving it back and forth. And then He turned to a chalkboard and He began to wipe all, I don't even know what was written, but I saw all kinds of things. And somehow I knew that they were accusations against me and against you. Somehow I knew in my spirit it was all the things that the enemy has accused us of over the years, our past perhaps, or where we were, where we have been, circumstances that we've lived under. But I saw the Lord just wiping it all clean.

Hallelujah. Just erasing every bit of it. Praise God. We can stand here this morning with a clean slate. We can stand here this morning as though we've just come to the Lord, justified anew and justified afresh.

I know we've been covered by the blood, but that didn't stop the devil. Did it? I know we've been saved and we've been born again, but that didn't stop him. Did it? He still kept accusing us of this and that. But I saw the Lord. I don't care, you may not believe in that. That doesn't matter to me. But I saw the Lord, He was waving that cloth like a victory, with joy. And then He turned and I saw behind Him that board with every accusation that Satan has ever made against us. I saw the Lord erasing every accusation.
