

INSTRUMENTS FOR THE LORD

Pastor Steven L. Shelley · March 29, 2000

I saw as it were the Lord, picking up a beautiful harp and placing it between His knees. His hands beginning to pull across the strings. And the thought came into my spirit. If you would have seen that harp standing alone in the corner, you would have never known the music that was locked inside. But when it was pulled to the knees of the Master Musician, and His fingers began to manipulate the strings, music that you would have never imagined possible, began to flow forth.

Let Him make you an instrument. Let Him play you and tune you as an instrument. If we should see you standing in the corner, we might not ever believe that you had it in you, the ability to flow or to accomplish. But when you sit upon the lap of the Lord and you are drawn to Him, and He begins to play and use you. Oh my, there is no limit to what can flow forth from your being.
