

THE PRIESTHOOD CHANGING

Pastor Steven L. Shelley · June 27, 2003

Jerusalem, Israel

While we were worshiping the Lord, I saw a vision of a group of priests coming up in a course, to minister to the Lord. I knew that there was a sense of needing to hurry up in them. They needed to hurry up. It was their time. Their course had come, and they needed to be carrying out their duty, ministering to the Lord.

They moved up rather swiftly. And as they were standing there, I saw them begin to fade away. And as they began to fade away, they faded away in little pieces and became kind of blurry, until they were all gone.

And as they were moving in the air, as though they were rearranging themselves, I saw another group of priests standing on the scene. But I knew that something drastic had changed. And I knew that God was dealing with me about the changing of the priesthood.

And the priesthood is not just about leadership. I want you to know that the Bible teaches us in the New Testament that all of us have been called as priests unto the Lord. It's not just about the preacher. It's not just about the leadership. But God wants all of us to flow in that anointing of the priesthood. And God was dealing with me a little bit about that today. What this means, the priesthood is changing.
