

BRIDAL PREPARATION

Pastor Steven L. Shelley · October 28, 2006

I just saw in a vision. And I don't know when I've ever seen Cinderella, I must have seen the comic, the animated version. I must have seen it somewhere in my life, but it hadn't been recently. This might not even be from Cinderella. I don't know what it's from or why I would see it like this.

But I saw these little white doves coming in with long threads, but it looked more like ribbons in their mouth, like long, long ribbons in their mouths. I saw them flying in all directions with all these long beautiful ribbons in their mouth.

And all of a sudden I saw a woman standing there, most likely of course representing the Bride with a beautiful white gown on. And I saw the doves weaving the ribbon through her dress.

And is there something like that in one of those movies or something, where the birds come and help dress the princess or something? I don't know. Honestly, I don't remember seeing it in the past fifteen years or longer.

But I was just seeing it in the Spirit, the little white doves bringing in the long ribbons. And they're just weaving it in this beautiful... Of course you know that's special because I saw the Bride in the sick bed, and I saw the Lord take her sick-gown and dress her in a beautiful garment.

But I just saw the birds weaving the ribbons in the beautiful gown of the Bride, the doves. And you may not remember it, but Brother Branham was so specific when he talked about the dove leading the eagle. The eagle comes, the dove follows. Right? And then the dove comes, and the eagle follows. It's the Spirit of God leading the way for the Voice.
