

HEARTS BECOMING SOFT

Pastor Steven L. Shelley · August 19, 2000

While we were worshipping the Lord in the last song, I saw just a quick vision. I saw a heart. And it wasn't shaped like the Valentine heart, but it was shaped like the human heart. And I could see the valves as they stuck up on the heart, and the shape of the heart. And I could see that it was so hard that it was just crusted over.

But I saw a touch of Oil drop from above upon the hard heart. And I remember the words of the Scripture that was given here. He said, "He would take that hard heart and give a fleshy heart." I could see that heart becoming soft as the Oil of God's anointing rolled down.

I believe that hearts that have been hardened against the things of God, I believe the touch of God's Oil is coming. I believe it's coming from above. I believe you're going to see the softening of hearts in a way that you have never seen it before. I believe the Lord is getting ready to turn these stony hearts to hearts of flesh, that He can touch, that He can change for His Glory.
