

HIDDEN HARVEST

Pastor Steven L. Shelley · September 25, 2005

I just had a vision. And in that vision I saw a beautiful fig tree. You know, the season for figs is over. But I saw a beautiful fig tree, and it had the most beautiful big leaves on it. And it was green and really full of leaves. But as I was moving closer to it in the Spirit, there was no figs.

And that doesn't really surprise me because it's been, oh, I guess it's been two months since we picked the last figs off of my fig tree at home. But the other day I was in the yard and I looked up and saw a big beautiful fig that was left on the tree that had just gotten ripe, only one on the whole tree.

But in this vision I drew closer and there was an expectation in my spirit that I should receive figs, that I should receive fruit. But the thought came into my spirit, it's not the season, it's not the season for figs. But I just reached into the fig tree and parted the branches and the leaves began to lay back. And when they did, underneath those leaves was the harvest. I saw hundreds and hundreds and hundreds of figs filling that tree in abundance. But backing away from the tree, I couldn't see any fruit at all.

And the Spirit of the Lord is saying, “Reach in. Reach in behind and beyond that which you see. Reach beyond the circumstances that you’re facing. For underneath those circumstances, hidden in those circumstances, is the harvest that you’ve been believing Me for.” Hallelujah. Reach in.
